Date set for completion of Didcot Parkway forecourt REVAMP IS ON RIGHT TRACKS

NEWS that the £8million revamp of Didcot Parkway's forecourt is weeks away from completion has been met with resounding positivity.

Work is set to be finished at the train station on September 17 after the discovery of asbestos earlier this year delayed the project by three months.

Asbestos and fuel tanks were found buried at the site and ground conditions were described as "poor" – leading to the initial finish date of June 11 being scrapped.

President of Didcot's Chamber of Commerce, Di Chesterman (below left) described it as "marvellous news".

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

While Eleanor Hards (below right), leader of Didcot Town Council, said the forecourt would make a "good gateway".

Cllr Hards added: "It is good to see a big project coming to a conclusion.

"We have got used to the changes as we have driven past it, but it's going to look very much smarter."

Oxfordshire County Council was forced to spend an extra £1.3m on developing the train station's forecourt on Station Road as a result of the asbestos – increasing the budget to £8m.

County council spokesperson Dominic Llewellyn-Jones said: "Due to unforeseen circumstances, including the discovery of asbestos under the main forecourt, the completion date for the work at Didcot Parkway has been delayed until September 17.

"There will be a phased reopening with bus services resuming their use of stops in front of the station from August 27."

However, there will be resurfacing work for three days in Station Road in October.

As a result of the asbestos discovery a planned covered walkway for the forecourt was put on hold because it was not deliverable within the budget.

South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC), therefore, held back a payment of £375,000 of its £812,000 contribution to the scheme pending the agreement of an alternative design.

Subsequently, the county council approved the allocation of £1.74m of funding from corporate capital programme contingencies at a cabinet meeting on June 17.

This saw the budget increase by £1.365m to £8.055m.

SODC spokesperson Andy Roberts said: "The new designs are currently still being worked on.

"We are sure the new designs will be suitable and we don't envisage any problems once they have been completed."

Ms Chesterman, who also owns craft shop No Two Things on the Broadway, hopes the improvements will help to attract more people to shop in Didcot.

"Hopefully when it is all done and completed we will see a return of shoppers coming in from the local stations," she said.

"It should be really good news for the whole town."

She added: "Having a smarter, up-to-date, modern looking forecourt will bring benefits.

"We had to put up with a bit of hardship. It's a shame it took as long as it did, but to hear it's nearly done is marvellous news."

Building work started at the station in September 2012 and the Lower and Upper East car parks as well as the West car park have been redeveloped.

Work began on the forecourt area – the last of the four-phase project - in February.

Jamie's keeping his dad's memory alive

By Adam Flinn

• Jamie Anderson, pictured with his dad Gerry and one of the famous Thunderbird puppets

THE son of the late Thunderbirds creator Gerry Anderson is encouraging people to sign up to the Oxford Memory Walk, raising money for those affected by dementia.

Jamie Anderson, 29, is starting the walkers off at Oxford's University Parks on September 14.

He has been supporting the Alzheimer's Society since 2012 after Gerry, who lived in Henley, revealed he was living with dementia.

"I noticed the recurring symptoms of Alzheimer's five or six years before my dad was actually diagnosed with the disease and in hindsight, I wish we had sought help sooner," said Jamie.

"The changes in dad's behaviour were difficult to deal with, but it was amazing to join him at the 2012 Memory Walk in aid of Alzheimer's Society."

Gerry passed away on Boxing Day 2012 aged 83, following a six-decade career which saw him create Thunderbirds, Captain Scarlet and Stingray.

Jamie added: "I am determined to keep his memory alive by being part of this year's Oxford Memory Walk.

"Beyond all of his amazing television and film achievements, I'm most proud of the fact my father raised over £1million for Alzheimer's Society.

"I want Memory Walk to raise even more money for people with dementia and their carers so that we can work towards the ultimate goal of finding a cure."

Walkers can take on routes of two or 10 kilometres around University Parks.

For more information or to sign up to the walk, visit memorywalk.org.uk/oxford.

Arrest after double stabbing

A 19-YEAR-OLD man has been arrested after two men were stabbed at a house in Rose Hill, Oxford, on Monday evening.

The man, from Oxford, was arrested on Tuesday on suspicion of assault occasioning grievous bodily harm and is currently in police custody.

It comes after officers were called shortly after 7.30pm to a house in The Oval, where they found the two men.

An 18-year-old was left with a puncture wound to his chest, while a 22-year-old man sustained injuries after being stabbed in the chest and back.

Both were taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington, although their injuries are not believed to be life-threatening.

Detective inspector Louise Roddy said: "I am appealing for witnesses who saw what happened or who may have seen people running away from The Oval around the time of the incident.

"It is believed the victims were known to the offender.

"Police take incidents of this nature seriously and detectives are currently working to establish the circumstances of what happened.

"Officers have been carrying out house-to-house enquiries in the area and anyone with any concerns can approach an officer."

Third break-in at Millets Farm

OXON: Police say they are investigating a "crime series" after thieves attempted to break into Millets Farm three times this month.

Two attempted break-ins took place on August 1 and 14 at the Frilford garden centre, before another attempt on Monday night.

There have also been reports of break-ins at Kingswell Hotel & Restaurant and Steventon Sports Club.

Between 1am and 4am on August 14, offenders broke into the club by smashing a window and stole a cash register and safe.

The Kingswell Hotel & Restaurant was broken into on August 19 between 12am and 1.41am, but the safe was not stolen.

A hotel guest saw a man in a balaclava and heard lots of banging noises.

Police spokesperson Merryn Hockaday said: "We are currently investigating a crime series where businesses are being broken into in order to steal the safes within."

City community projects receive council backing

OXFORD: Eleven community projects have received a combined £48,000 from the city council through its social inclusion grant funding.

Organisations could apply for grants of up to £7,000 to support their work with disadvantaged residents.

Groups who received funding included the Barton Community Association, who received £3,500, and the Oxford Citizens Advice Bureau, who were given £2,500.

Christine Simm, the council's board member for culture and communities, said: "We are very pleased to be able to make this funding available to the many valuable organisations in the city.

"The quality of the applications was very high and we were pleased to see that 25 per cent of the applications came from diverse community groups across Oxford."

Leys' community centre given new lease of life

BLACKBIRD Leys Community Centre has been given a street art makeover by the estate's youngsters.

Charity The Leys Community Development Initiative (CDI) worked with street art tutors Aaron and Cuba from Crushproof to design a mural.

The spec was to create a design that represents the community centre and the groups within it

Marsha Jackson, youth project development manager at CDI, said: "The old mural was about 15-years-old and looked faded and tired.

"We felt that it deserved a new lease of life.

"We have worked with Crushproof before when we decorated our hall so we knew they would be able to help us create something really special."

Oxford City Council was also part of the project and Northfield Brook ward member Scott Seamons said: "It is great to see young people putting their energies to such good use.

"The original mural on this part of the community centre was due a refresh and they have created something which reflects the vibrancy of the area."

Abingdon makes it to top-ten living spots

NORTH Abingdon is the seventh-best place to live in the country, a national survey has revealed.

A survey conducted by The Daily Telegraph ranked more than 7,000 districts in England and Wales based on the income of residents, economic activity, home ownership, crime and health.

And the area of north Abingdon that includes Dunmore and Peachcroft came seventh in the rankings as it scored highly in all five categories, including recording the ninth-best crime rate.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Mayor of Abingdon Angela Lawrence was pleased with the news, and said: "It's great that we're recognised in this way.

"Having PCSOs (police community support officers) visible gives people a feeling of safety, and this is an area where we've got fairly high employment and people on a comfortable income, which affects education and health.

"Abingdon is a very nice place to live, and just being a very nice place makes people happy."

Sandy Lovatt, leader of Abingdon Town Council and county councillor for north Abingdon, thought that the ranking was "a fair assessment".

He added: "I think Abingdon is a wonderful place to live in, whether it's north, south, east or west.

"We've got excellent primary schools in north Abingdon, and our secondary schools have had a good year as well.

"The fact that we're so much better than some of the other places is interesting, because there's lots of lovely places to live in this country."

A large proportion of rural southern Oxfordshire made the top 1,000 best places to live.

The area including Grove was ranked 311th, while Wallingford came 965th and part of central Abingdon broke into the top-100 with 96th.

South Abingdon came 2,473rd, south Didcot was 1,373rd and Wantage came 1,198th.

Oxford achieved mixed results, ranging from Marston in 1,234th to the city centre in 5,808th.

The western half of Chandlers Ford in Hampshire was ranked as the best place to live in England and Wales, while Grimsby's East March area, in Lincolnshire, was at the bottom of the list.

Rain doesn't stop White Horse show success

ORGANISERS described last weekend's Uffington White Horse Show as a success despite Monday's damp weather.

Nearly 6,000 people turned up at the country show on Fawler Road last Sunday with crowds down to 1,000 on Bank Holiday Monday.

However, £15,000 was raised for the White Horse Charitable Trust, which supports local associations and charities.

Organiser Mike Thomas said: "There were many favourable comments about the new showground layout and everybody seemed to have a good time, whether or not the sun shone for them.

"This year proved the resilience of the White Horse Show, whatever the weather, and it will be back again over August Bank Holiday Sunday and Monday next year."

Despite Monday's rain, revellers were still able to enjoy Zippo's Festival Circus and undercover attractions including farm animals, a country crafts marquee, and entertainment from the Wantage Silver Band.

There was also a stunt flying display and Didcot shooter Dan Rivers, fresh from winning gold in the Commonwealth Games, also made an appearance.

Post office to get revamp

GROVE: The village's Post Office is set to close next month for 11 days as part of plans to refurbish the service.

It will close at 5.30pm on September 18 before reopening at 1pm on September 29.

The retail side of the store will remain open during that time.

Following the reopening, it will be open for an extra 57 hours a week, including on Saturday afternoons and all day on a Sunday.

It comes as part of a campaign by the Post Office to improve its branches.

Didcot home drugs raid

DIDCOT: A man has been bailed until October 29 after being arrested in connection with a large quantity of heroin and crack cocaine found at a house in Didcot.

Police searched the property in Hamble Road on August 1 and arrested the 33-year-old man.

Two other men were also arrested, but one was recalled to a prison in Liverpool and the Metropolitan Police wanted the other.

Disturbing the peace with dogs

WATLINGTON: Three men have been arrested for hare coarsing and conspiring to commit a public nuisance.

The men, aged 42, 29 and 18, were arrested in Watlington on August 17.

They have been bailed until September 20.

Oxfordshire's students celebrate GCSE results

MORE than 6,000 students across Oxfordshire collected their GCSE results last Thursday, with many schools reporting their best ever results.

Well over half of students across the county earned at least five GCSEs between A* and C, with many getting the results in English and Maths.

The data released so far is based on each school's first results, with the final results expected later this year once exam retakes have been sat.

At Fitzharrys School in Abingdon, 67 per cent of pupils received five or more A* to C grades – a record nine per cent increase on last year.

Headteacher Jonathan Dennett said: "The increase is a great achievement, and these are close to the best results in the school's history.

"We are very proud of our students and staff.

"It is great to see their hard work, commitment and determination rewarded in this way."

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

In Wantage, 25 students at King Alfred's Academy attained seven or more A* and A grade GCSEs.

Acting headteacher Jo Halliday said: "We are once again delighted our students can look forward to a future with so many options.

"We are thrilled that a great many of them are staying on with us into Sixth Form."

And Henry Box School in Witney celebrated their best ever results as 65 per cent of students collected a minimum of five A* to C results.

Headteacher Wendy Hemmingsley said: "I'm delighted with these results which are a testament to the excellent teaching and pastoral support of our staff and students.

"I would like to congratulate and thank them all."

Melinda Tilley, Oxfordshire County Council's cabinet member for children, education and families, added: "While there are always stand-out performances, all students who have worked hard for their grades should be commended for their efforts."

She continued: "The dedication of hardworking teaching staff across the county should also be acknowledged, as well as the support provided by families during exams."

Burglary appeal

FOREST HILL: Police are appealing for information after cash and jewellery was taken from a house in Wheatley Road.

Between 9am and 4.10pm last Friday, thieves broke in by forcing open the rear wooden door and stole cash and several items of Asian jewellery, including a gold pendant, rings and a jade bracelet.

Witnesses are asked to call police on 101.

Fire at city shop

OXFORD: Fire crews were called to Oxford city centre on Sunday after a blaze broke out at a shop in the Golden Cross Arcade.

Crews were called out at around 4.35pm, and it is believed the fire was caused by an electrical fault in a freezer unit in the Holland & Barrett health food shop.

No-one was hurt in the incident.

Device donated

FARINGDON: The town's branch of the British Heart Foundation presented Carswell Golf Club with a defibrillator unit last Thursday.

It has been funded by the charity and the golf club, as well as a contribution from Uffington residents Bill and Ann Smith, who pledged the funds in lieu of gifts from their recent gold wedding anniversary.

Village event criticised for bear cubs sideshow

AN ANNUAL village show has caused controversy with animal rights campaigners after three bear cubs were put on display.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Enstone's village show took place on Saturday afternoon at the Sports and Social Club on Cox's Lane with a number of attractions including a dog show and terrier racing, as well as the bear cubs.

But before the show, animal rights campaign groups urged their supporters to write to show organisers to voice their criticism.

Jan Creamer, president of Animal Defenders International, said: "Using wild animals for entertainment may appear harmless, but it is certainly no fun for animals like bears who are highly intelligent and have very specialised needs.

"Our investigations have shown the suffering these animals endure, and we urged the organisers to pull the bear club from the Enstone Show and refrain from having wild animals at future events."

Liz Tyson, director of Captive Animals' Protection Society, said: "Young wild animals being paraded as sideshows is something that we would have hoped was well behind us, but the organisers of Enstone Show have shown that this is not the case."

But Enstone Show organiser Kate Farquhar-Thomson defended the move, saying that having animals at the show was nothing new.

She said: "We have animals every year. It's nothing new this year, and every year we have different animals."

Lion cubs featured in last year's show, and Ms Farquhar-Thompson said she expected to have animals again at next year's event.

She added: "The rest of the show was fabulous because we had fantastic weather, which makes such a difference."

Chris captures a perfect picture

A WOMAN who perfectly captured the moment that the Didcot cooling towers were demolished has been crowned the winner of a photography competition.

Chris Turner, from Didcot, snapped the towers as they collapsed to the ground.

And she was named the winner of Persimmon Homes Wessex's competition for the best picture, which will now be hung in their sales office.

"I did not expect to win the competition, but thought it would be fun to take part," said Chris, who used to work at the power station.

"When I heard the news that a date had been set for the south towers to be demolished, I absolutely knew I had to be there to see it.

"After a few hours' sleep, I had the opportunity to view the images I'd taken and was pleased to see that I had got some reasonably good pictures – my personal record of the demolition."

Pauline Fletcher, sales and marketing director for Persimmon Homes Wessex, said: "We were delighted with the entries we received, but Chris' photograph easily stood out.

"To capture such an amazing picture in just a few seconds is amazing and we believe it will be a real feature in our sales office."

Village hall renovation moves one step closer

A COMMUNITY effort to secure funding to rebuild Finstock Village Hall has led to the parish council securing a £62,000 loan from West Oxfordshire District Council.

Finstock Parish Council's cabinet approved the decision to receive the funds from the Community Loan Scheme last week.

It comes after £47,500 was given to the project by the district council through the Community Facilities Grant scheme in June this year.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Richard Langridge, cabinet member for communities, said: "This is an absolutely fantastic project.

"An awful lot of hard work has gone into it and there has been a massive community effort, which deserves to be congratulated.

"We were delighted to be in the position to provide a substantial grant earlier this year and we are equally pleased to be able to offer this loan.

"We wish the project all the best in the final stages of grant applications and look forward to seeing it progress."

The new building will replace the current village hall on Well Hill, which was constructed in 1929 and is deteriorating.

The project, led by the parish council and Village Hall trustees, will cost over £300,000.

More than half of the money had been secured ahead of the loan application.

Roy Townsend, chairman of Finstock Parish Council, said the community was behind the project.

"The work that is planned will give it a whole new lease of life and get the community using it again," he said.

"The whole village is behind this project, and we are grateful for all the support we've received."

Shaun Morley, chairman of the Village Hall trustees, added: "There has been overwhelming support from the village for this project.

"The community has really come together to raise the funds and show the commitment of Finstock."

Building work on the new village hall is expected to start next summer, while the loan will be repaid by the parish council over the next 15 years.

• Residents outside Finstock Village Hall are hoping building work will start next summer

Assault appeal

BICESTER: A man was left needing hospital treatment after he was assaulted near Market Square earlier this month.

Between 3am and 3.30am on August 10, the 24-year-old victim was walking towards Market Square from Chapel Street when he was approached by two men.

They then pushed the victim into a stream and demanded cash.

The man was left with cuts to his right eye and across the bridge of his nose, as well as grazes, and went to the Horton Hospital in Banbury for treatment.

The first offender is white with blond hair, while the second is described as black, in his mid-20s and of slim build.

Anyone with information is asked to call 101.

Ambulance staff to teach public life-saving skills

OXON: St John Ambulance is teaching people what could be vital first aid skills in its annual Save a Life September campaign in the county next month.

Volunteers will be providing demonstrations at Castle Quay Shopping Centre in Banbury on September 6 and at Westgate Shopping Centre in Oxford on September 20.

Chris Cook, regional training and community projects manager, said: "We want to reach as many people as possible so that more people are equipped with the skills to save a life."

Health centre for unhealthy lifestyles opens its doors

A NEW health centre designed for people who want to address their unhealthy lifestyles and reduce their risk of health problems was opened at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital yesterday.

The Here for Health Centre will initially be open for a year as a trial period to find out how effective the service is at improving health.

It is located in Blue Outpatients on level two of the hospital, where staff will offer lifestyle advice to patients.

Andrew Stevens, director of information and planning at Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust, which runs the John Radcliffe, believes the centre will be beneficial to visitors.

He said: "Every contact with Oxford University Hospitals is an opportunity to promote health.

"Our ambition is that our staff feel able to promote healthier behaviours to their patients, visitors and colleagues, and that our hospital sites encourage healthier choices."

Hilary Hibbert-Biles, Oxfordshire County Council's cabinet member for public health, added: "I am sure that the centre will prove to be a useful resource.

"I would encourage people to visit it and take on board the advice that is on offer."

The centre is open from 9am to 5pm Monday to Friday.

Consultation launched for new local plan

A CONSULTATION of Cherwell District Council's revised local plan has been launched after additional development sites and increased housing numbers were added to the proposal.

The revised document includes provision for more than 10,000 new homes in Bicester, over 7,200 in Banbury and almost 5,500 in Kidlington and rural areas.

This is an increase of around 6,000 homes compared to the original local plan.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

It comes after government planning inspectors began an inquiry into the council's first local plan, before it was suspended in June to allow changes to be made.

Michael Gibbard (pictured), the council's lead member for planning, said: "Initially the plan looked at delivering 16,750 homes between 2006 and 2013, and now we are being asked to consider ways to provide 22,800 homes between 2011 and 2031.

"Of this new number, 1,106 homes have already been built and we have granted permission for another 6,500. We're looking for areas to deliver an additional 15,675 homes which are yet to have been built or receive permission."

Cllr Gibbard added: "The council continues to propose that the majority of new development should be confined to Banbury and Bicester to protect the rural areas.

"As such, we have revised the housing numbers of eight of the previous suggested sites and proposed an additional five preferred sites for development."

Four new developments have been put forward for Banbury alongside four pre-planned sites, as well as one new location in Bicester to go with the four original choices.

A 250-home development in Kidlington has also been proposed, as well as 2,000 homes to be built in Upper Heyford.

The consultation was launched last Friday, and residents have until September 29 to comment on the plans ahead of a full council meeting on October 20.

District councillors will then vote on whether to accept the revisions, and if agreed, the local plan will be presented to the inspector on December 9.

To view the local plan and to comment on the consultation, go to cherwell.gov.uk.

Free wi-fi system

OXON: Patients and visitors at four Oxfordshire hospitals can surf the web for free inside the buildings following the launch of a new wi-fi system.

The scheme is currently available at the John Radcliffe and Churchill hospitals, and is expected to be extended to the Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre and Banbury's Horton General Hospital.

Pair sentenced

BENSON: Two people have been sentenced for their involvement in staging collisions to fraudulently claim compensation, with one incident occurring near Benson.

Nasir Mahmood and Aniela Chaudhry, both of Reading, were convicted of causing a crash on the A4074 south of Benson on February 29, 2012, alongside six other incidents.

Mahmood was sentenced to four years and Chaudhry to 21-months in prison at Reading Crown Court on August 15.

Public choose colour scheme for tower block renovation project

RESIDENTS living in two Oxford tower blocks have chosen a new colour scheme for the buildings when they are renovated next year.

People living at Windrush and Evenlode towers in Blackbird Leys made their decision following a consultation meeting at the sites earlier this month.

Windrush Tower will be clad in red, orange and yellow, while Evenlode will be in shades of blue.

Scott Seamons, board member for housing and estate regeneration with Oxford City Council, said: "Residents were positive about the new design and were presented with a range of colour schemes.

"Now these have been agreed on, we can move forward to the next stage."

The renovation project for five towers in Oxford – the two in Blackbird Leys and Plowman, Foresters and Hockmore towers – is due to begin in 2015 and last for three years.

Work will include improving the external look of the towers, as well as providing added insulation and replacing windows, heating and electrics.

It is hoped the work will extend the towers' lifespan by 30 years.

Haystack fire

WANTAGE: A large haystack fire broke out near Wantage in a suspected arson attack on Tuesday morning.

Police were called at around 4am to Copperage Road, near Farnborough, after 200 tonnes of hay caught fire.

It comes after similar arsons were reported in West Berkshire in the last couple of weeks.

Detective constable Bethany French said: "It is too early to say for certain if these fires are linked, but what is clear is that the arsons are all similar."

Court hears last words of Connor

By Jack Johnson and Katriona Ormiston
news@taylornewspapers.co.uk

CONNOR Tremble's last words were that he did not know who killed him, a jury heard.

The Oxford Crown Court jury is due to decide a verdict in the murder trial of teenager Connor Tremble.

The 17-year-old was stabbed about 15 times in his flat in Fairacres Road, Oxford, on February 13 this year.

Will Blencowe, of Oxford Road, Banbury, admits killing him but denies murder.

Prosecuting, Richard Barton said: "Connor had no idea who it was coming at him in a woolly hat and a big coat who attacked him in a frenzy on the sofa.

"That was why his dying words were that he doesn't know."

Blencowe, 21, claims he acted in self-defence and was suffering from a mental condition during the stabbing.

On Tuesday lawyers finished summing up the evidence heard throughout the 13-day trial.

The jury was expected to be sent out to deliberate their verdict yesterday.

• Oxford Crown Court

Defending barrister Adrian Amer said Blencowe only stabbed Connor because he thought he was in "imminent danger" when Connor came to the door with the knife.

Mr Barton said: "Clearly it cannot be self defence – he went around there armed, his intention was clear."

The jury previously heard from psychiatrist Dr Michael Orr who said Blencowe described himself as "the living dead".

Connor's girlfriend Aimee Harrison, 20, who dated Blencowe for four years until September last year, gave evidence at the trial.

She told the jury Blencowe, promised he would not harm Connor after finding out they were a couple, but told her to tell the teenager to "run" if he ever saw him.

Co-defendants Bradley Jones, 21, of New Road, Bledington, and Grant Clemens, 23, of Stockwells, Moreton-in-Marsh, are also on trial.

They both deny charges of perverting the course of justice.

Thousands celebrate festival's 50th

MORE than 8,000 people flocked to Towersey last weekend to celebrate the festival's 50th anniversary and watch over 200 acts perform across 10 stages.

It began last Thursday night with a nostalgic gig from The Bootleg Beatles, before finishing on Monday with a concert by the Conservatoire Folk Ensemble.

Other notable acts included folk musician Seth Lakeman and guitarist Richard Thompson (pictured).

Festival director Joe Heap said: "Towersey Festival always has a great atmosphere, but this year with it being our golden jubilee there was a real sense of occasion and celebration.

"So many visitors came up to me and said it was the best Towersey they'd been to."

The festival is expected to return for its 51st next year from August 28 to 31, 2015.

Rogue roofer tried to con man out of £13k

A ROOFER who tried to con an elderly Carterton man out of £13,600 for work that didn't need doing was convicted at Oxford Crown Court on Friday.

John Watson, 37, from Abbotts Langley in Hertfordshire, told the 72-year-old victim, who lived

By Adam Flinn
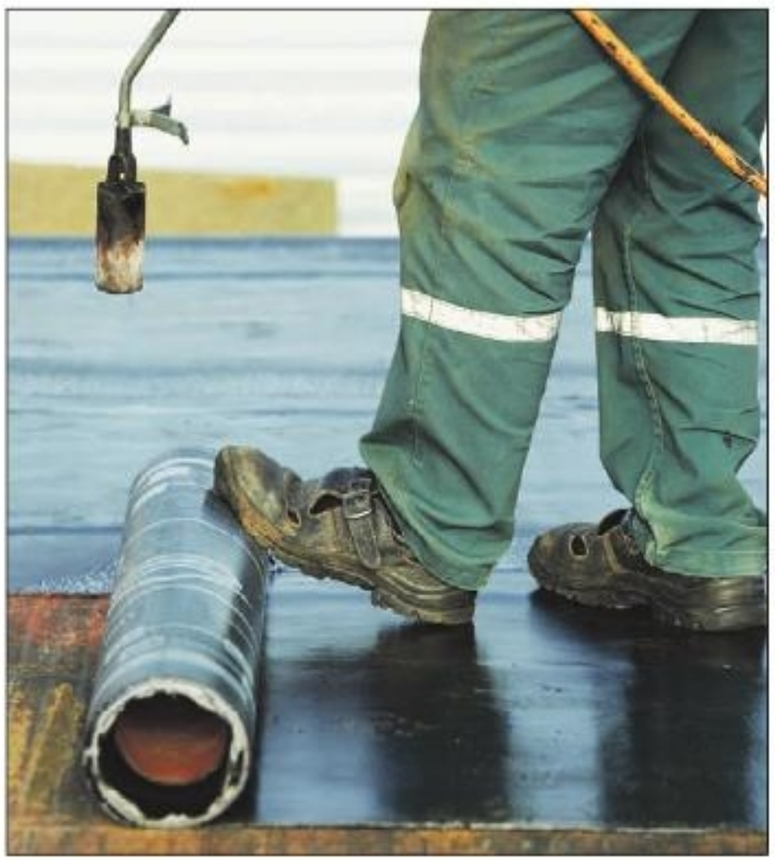
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

in Oakfield Road, that his roof felt needed to be replaced on February 6 last year.

Jurors were told that a surveyor who examined the work afterwards said that none of it was necessary.



The victim had paid by cheque, which was cancelled before it was cashed.

And Watson, who denied five charges including fraud, was prosecuted following a case by Oxfordshire County Council's Trading Standards team.

He was acquitted of three other charges related to commercial practice.

Anu Prashar, a team leader with Trading Standards, said: "This case is an example of a trader preying on a vulnerable person and trying to con them out of thousands of pounds for work that was not required.

"It shows just how far some ruthless and dishonest traders will go to try and obtain money under false pretences.

"I am pleased that Watson was found guilty of two of the charges he faced and I hope that it acts as a deterrent to anybody else who might be thinking of trying to con residents out of money in Oxfordshire."

Watson was given conditional bail and is due to be sentenced at Oxford Crown Court in St Aldate's on October 3.

Mayor's Corner

Scott Wilgrove
Mayor of Didcot

Fishing, re-enactment and fete for the mayor

AUGUST has been quite quiet in terms of engagements but there have been three highlights for me.

The first was the presentation of the prizes for the junior fishing competition. I was surprised and impressed by the amount and size of the fish in the lakes, and by the amount of skill required to get them out. Some of these young fishermen showed remarkable patience and ability. The diversity of activity that goes in the town is unbelievable.

The second event that stands out in my mind was the 1940s re-enactment event at the Railway Centre. This event gave me another chance to dress up in my guards uniform and meet the public which is always fun. The day was all about promoting the centre and giving people an opportunity to see how it looked 70 years ago.

People travel from far and wide to attend these events and everyone there seemed to be having a great day in the sunshine. I'm really looking forward to the next event on the September 13 and hope to meet more of the residents of Didcot then.

The third event was Didcot Hospital fete, the dedication of league of friends and all the volunteers to setup the event in such poor weather was amazing. Visitors braved the weather to attend for such a good cause. It was a pleasure to open the event for them.

THE LAMB Crawley

"Eating Out Should Be Fun, Exciting, Engaging And Delicious... Ensuring This Happens Is What I Strive For Everyday"

This is our ethos here at The Lamb Inn, Crawley, we want our guests to feel excited by our food. We want to challenge the preconceptions of "pub grub" and "fine dining", why can't they be assimilated? Pub food shouldn't be pre packaged and reheated, yet fine dining shouldn't be elitist or over bearing; both myself and my 'long suffering' sous chef, David Konye, feel passionate about this and is quite simply the reason we built the Lamb. We aim to serve contemporary, fun and sometimes challenging dishes that capture the essence of Britain, its incredible produce, seasons and people. We want our guests to come to us and enjoy themselves, try something new, challenge themselves but above all have a good time in doing this.

Some of our newest dishes see us trying to encapsulate this ethos and represent it on a plate; 'duck liver parfait, duck hearts, coffee, passion fruit, walnut and dandelion' is a prime example of this. It perhaps best personifies our style and goal in that it takes something quintessentially pub (the duck pate) and marries it with an element of fine dining.

US contract wins for Amey and Unipart

Business Matters

Chris Evett, Director of Simplexity Analysis

Hot-desking homeworkers

THE Mix on Mill Street, Wantage, is offering a 'pop-up' office that provides an ideal space for both start-up companies and homeworkers.

It is a sustainable initiative funded by local councils and Crowdfunder (an online crowd-funding resource). Like the 'Flashops' which were first trialled on Mill Street, it is a different kind of place, available to anyone in the local community; for homeworkers (especially those with small children on school holidays!) it is a blessing.

The space is light, spacious and available at a good price. For self-employed people, or people with start-up companies, office rentals can represent a significant early outlay (an average office space for one person is around £200 per month).

By contrast, the cost for renting space at The Mix is £40 per month (with an introductory rate of £20 per month until October 2014).

Even more important than the cost is the social atmosphere. The other people who share the space are like you; they have their own businesses or plans and this can be tremendously helpful - either for networking or just chatting through some ideas or issues you're having.

In addition to the facilities, we run a #likemind coffee morning on the third Friday of every month. At these mornings homeworkers and entrepreneurs can drop into The Buzz café next door to meet up and chat about any challenges or opportunities.

That's what is so beneficial about initiatives like The Mix. They bring together local people to develop ideas.

TWO of Oxfordshire's biggest employers have announced major contract wins in America.

A joint venture between Amey and sister company, Webber, has been awarded a contract by the Texas Department of Transportation to manage and maintain the major interstate highways in and around Dallas.

While Oxford-based Unipart Group has won a major contract with National Grid to train and coach thousands of employees in the United States in continuous improvement.

The Amey contract, valued at £11million ($19m), is for an initial period of two years and has the potential to be extended for up to four years.

By Iain Nicholson
news@oxfordshireguardian.co.uk

Amey's chief executive, Mel Ewell, said: "This win spearheads Amey's growth in America.

"It is part of our continued expansion overseas, complementing recent growth in the Middle East and Australia," he added.

Unipart began its work with National Grid in the UK where it's helping the company to implement a programme called Performance Excellence, a way to engage people at every level of the organisation in making improvements.

Unipart is now working across National Grid's operations in the US providing practical training and coaching at all levels.

Unipart Chairman and Group Chief Executive, John Neill, said: "We're very pleased to extend our footprint to play a part in National Grid's successful implementation in the US, and to work with such a significant organisation in a sector that is critically important to all our futures."

Spark Vale, the Vale4Business and Bybox-funded business support initiative, run by Oxford Innovation, is hosting the five workshops designed to nurture budding entrepreneurs.

All starting at 9am, the five are:

- HR and Recruitment, September 3, Harwell Innovation Centre
- Internet Marketing, September 9, Shrivenham 100 Business Park
- Sales & Marketing, September 23, Oxford Abingdon Four Pillars Hotel
- Business Planning, October 1, Harwell Innovation Centre
- Ideas and Pitching, October 29, The Beacon, Wantage

Secret shows

TWO weeks of secret theatre productions gets underway at the Oxford Playhouse from Monday, with five shows planned for the fortnight.

Information about the shows is being kept hidden, so theatre-goers will be surprised when they find out what it is they are going to see.

They are taking place on the main Playhouse stage, in the Burton Taylor Studio and at a secret off-site location. For more details, go to oxfordplayhouse.com.

South Pacific

THE Tony Award-winning classic show South Pacific ends its run at the Pegasus Theatre in Oxford this weekend.

Shows are taking place today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Big Feastival returns

THE Cotswolds' annual music and food celebration The Big Feastival gets underway tomorrow, with a wide range of entertainment on offer for visitors.

Hosted by celebrity chef Jamie Oliver and former Blur bassist Alex James at the latter's farm in Kingham, the event has been running since 2011.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

More than 20 live music acts are appearing over the three-day festival, including Abba tribute group Bjorn Again tomorrow, DJ Fatboy Slim on Saturday and pianist Jamie Cullum on Sunday.

And a number of top chefs will also be showing off their culinary skills, including Levi Roots, Rachel Khoo, Monica Galetti, and Jamie himself.

"Three full days of great music, delicious food and good times for all the family, so get involved!" said Jamie.

Alex added: "The Big Feastival gets bigger and better every year. I can't wait – it's going to be one hell of a party!"

Also taking place at this year's festival is the exclusive Supper Club – a pop-up banquet featuring four courses from some of the best chefs in the world that takes place tomorrow.

Uyen Luu, author of cookbook 'My Vietnamese Kitchen' is set to prepare the starter.

She said: "I've been hosting supper clubs for nearly five years at my home in Hackney and it's changed my life.

"To take part at The Big Feastival is so exciting."

Food writer James Ramsden, who is creating the main course, said: "Having run one of my own supper clubs in a London flat for several years, it's going to be fun transporting the idea to a field in Oxfordshire."

And TV and radio stars Laura Jackson and Alice Levine will be serving dessert.

"It should be the perfect end to what will be an incredible feast," they said.

For more information about the festival and the supper club, go to jamieoliver.com/thebigfeastival.

Dreaming out loud

THE story of Bobby, Laura, Norman and Sue in the hit stage musical Dreamboats and Petticoats has been given a sequel, which comes to Oxford's New Theatre from Monday.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Dreamoats and Miniskirts is set six months after the original in 1963, when Bobby and Laura had released their hit single and Norman and Sue had settled down into marriage.

But the rise of The Beatles encourages the four to give stardom another try, with Dreamboats and Miniskirts following their progress.

"It's a continuation of Dreamcoats and Petticoats, so you've got all the same characters there," said Alex Beaumont, who plays Bobby in the production.

"Bobby and Laura have had their success with the Dreamboats and Petticoats single, so it's seeing whether they can sustain a career in pop music together or what kind of avenue they're going to go down."

A wide variety of iconic 60s music is performed during the show, including 'Pretty Woman', 'Twist and Shout', 'Save the Last Dance For Me', and 'Dreamboats and Petticoats' itself.

This is the first major production Alex has been involved in since graduating from drama school in 2010, and he is relishing the opportunity.

"It's been brilliant," he added. "I think the phrase 'good things come to those who wait' really does sum up the feeling.

"For four years I don't feel like I've done anything that differently, but suddenly this has just happened. It's been absolutely fantastic.

"I haven't performed in Oxford before but my dad used to live in Iffley Road, so I do know Oxford quite well.

"I'm really looking forward to coming back."

The show runs until September 6. For more information or to book tickets, go to newtheatreoxford.org.uk.

Shakespeare

A LIVE screening of Shakespeare's great comedy The Two Gentlemen of Verona is being held at the Chipping Norton Theatre on Wednesday evening.

The production is being staged for the first time in 45 years on the Royal Shakespeare Theatre stage in Stratford-upon-Avon, telling the story of Valentine and Proteus.

It starts at 7pm.

Comedy show

COMEDIANS Gary Delaney, Ryan Cull, Andrew O'Neill and Matt Richardson make up the line-up at the Oxford Glee Club on Saturday.

Gary has previously been described as "the man Jimmy Carr tries to be", while Didcot's own Matt was previously one of the hosts of the Xtra Factor.

Doors open at 7.15pm.

Improvisers

THE Oxford Improvisers return to the Old Fire Station in George Street on Tuesday, for the latest in their regular series of music evenings.

They will be joined by the Cheltenham Improvisers as they create a new piece of music from scratch.

It begins at 8pm, and further information can be found on oldfirestation.org.uk.

MATT MIDGLEY - LIVE CONCERT
Matt Midgley is a Scottish solo-acoustic guitarist, singer and songwriter based in Oxfordshire. His technical percussive guitar skills and alternative folk style create an amazingly unique sound, topped with simple melodies, catchy hooks, and strong Scottish vocals.
After a hugely successful 2013 of touring, festival hopping, and collaborating with the likes of Mike Dawes and Thomas Leeb, Matt is currently working on new material which he will be showcasing this Summer.

MATT MIDGLEY - GUITAR WORKSHOP
Introduction to percussive guitar. The workshop will be a fully unique and interactive experience. Matt will work intensively with a small number of students (max 15). The workshop will focus on many aspects of percussive guitar and will look at any struggles to employ them in your own playing.
The workshop is suitable for those acoustic guitar players of intermediate to advanced ability (2/3 years playing experience upwards).
If you would like a place and to take part in Matt's workshop, you must attend with your acoustic guitar (steel strung), in order for you to play along and take part in the lessons.
By booking a place you will also be agreeing that you are the appropriate ability level on your instrument, and that you have some experience reading music notation or Tab.
This day long experience will be an exciting opportunity for aspiring percussive guitarists to work closely with a world class teacher and performer.
We expect this event to be very popular and to sell out fast. Book early to avoid disappointment.

HERITAGE OPEN DAYS - ABINGDON
"Heritage Open Days turn 20 this year. For most of those years Abingdon has opened properties that are not normally open, and put on events remembering the town's heritage.
This year 15 properties will be opening. Most on the Saturday and a couple also on the Sunday. Start at Abingdon Market Place for Information.
There are also Heritage Walks, and we look back at the Centenary of the Start of WWI. There is an exhibition in the Community Shop of pictures of Abingdon people from 1914-1918 the week before, and a packed family activity day in the Market Place to transport you back to Abingdon in 1914.

WIN tickets to the Dubai Duty Free International weekend!

MULTI award-winning airport retailer Dubai Duty Free return to Newbury Racecourse in September for the thrilling two-day International Weekend, and you could be there on Saturday, 20th September courtesy of the title sponsor.

The highlight of the action-packed fixture is the Group Two Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef Stakes, a competitive six-furlong contest which often attracts some of the best two-year olds in training with Classic race potential.

In addition to the scintillating seven-race card racegoers will have the chance to sample a taste of the Middle East, with complimentary dates and coffee served in the Dubai Duty Free Marquee adjacent to the parade ring. There will also be the chance to win free entry into the Dubai Duty Free Finest Surprise and Dubai Duty Free Millennium Millionaire draws!

If you fancy winning one of 10 pairs of Premier Enclosure tickets to racing on Saturday 20th September simply answer the following question:

Closing date:
Friday, September 12, 2014

Q: Which horse won the 2013 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef Stakes? Supplicant, Dancing Brave or Mill Reef?

Leon CUPRA 280 buyers can now bolster their vehicle with the latest additions

Seat unveil performance pack

REVIEW: Seat Leon CUPRA 280
By James Richings

SUMMER is the one season of the year where you look forward to the weather. It is that time of year when you drive to the beach and let your hair down.

And Spanish car manufacturer Seat is helping you create those summer memories by launching a new 'Sub8 Performance Pack' for the Leon CUPRA 280.

The pack includes larger brake discs, 19-inch alloy wheels in either black or orange and body-coloured side skirts for £2,025 including VAT.

CUPRA 280 owners can also seek the ultimate grip with semi-slick Michelin Pilot Sport Cup 2 tyres, available at £460.

The Leon CUPRA 280 is effectively two cars in one.

One minute it is a docile and practical five-door family car, and the next, in CUPRA mode, it becomes a force to be reckoned with, hitting 62mph in 5.7 seconds.

As well as the new Sub8 Performance Pack, SEAT also introduced its new CUPRA colour exterior packs during the Goodwood Festival of Speed in June this year.

Two shades – Black-Line and White-Line – have initially been made available and cost £500 including VAT.

They are available to order now and also include19-inch alloy wheels, door mirrors and rear side spoilers.

SEAT will launch a further pack - Orange-Line - in December.

Rounding off the additions for the Leon CUPRA 280, is the figure-hugging bucket seats priced at £1,250.

They feature a one-piece head restraint and come in black Alcantara with leather bolster.

The price also includes the Winter Pack, which includes heated front seats and headlight washer system with heated nozzles.

The Seat Leon was introduced in October 1998 and went on sale to the public a year later.

In that time there have been three different generations of the vehicle, including the latest model which was introduced in 2012.

CarShop.co.uk - A New 'Best in Class' Website at the Forefront of Responsive Design

CAR SHOP

CarShop has this week unveiled their sleek new fully-responsive website, packed with new features and functionality to ensure the ultimate digital customer experience gets delivered online.

Showcasing an ultra-modern design, this forward-thinking website adjusts gracefully to the device it is being used; be it a desktop, tablet or smartphone. Utilising touch gesture technology, CarShop have managed to make car-buying easier for people browsing on the move.

One of the key features of this website is the new-style car search, allowing multiple makes and models to be selected and searched at the same time, and then easily compared. This is on top of an improved advanced search, allowing multiple body types and colours to be factored into the individual's search criteria. Other impressive features include: a new simple online reservation flow, an enhanced compare feature and the ability to shortlist cars and receive email updates based on previously searched criteria.

Leo Nelson, CarShop's Marketing Director, commented "we're incredibly proud of the new website, and its ability to deliver the ultimate online experience.

"Earlier this year we commissioned a piece of consumer research, the results of which have helped inform the design of all new carshop.co.uk. Results showed that 90% of customers use online channels during the car-buying research process. What we have created is an environment where customers can easily access all of information they need to aid their buying decisions; in doing so we're confident we're able to continue to be one of the leaders in the automotive digital marketplace."

To view the new website please visit www.carshop.co.uk.

The Thames Valley Community Rehabilitation Company Limited (TVCRC)
Less re-offending, fewer victims

Community Payback Supervisors - Sessional

Based: Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire
Ref: JGP 1881

Do you have good DIY skills? Are you confident and assertive? We are looking for sessional supervisors, across Ox and Bucks, to oversee groups of offenders with Unpaid Work Requirements (formerly Community Service) working in the community. The work can be anything from clearing pathways to painting schools or conservation work. You will be given full training and can earn from £11.42 to £14.19 an hour plus extra allowances for weekend working.

You will effectively supervise offenders, maintain discipline, and ensure that work is carried out to a good standard. Excellent communication skills and a range of practical skills are essential. You must have a D1 license as you may be required to drive a minibus, you must also have use of a vehicle as you will be required to travel throughout the region.

For more information please contact Erica Swift, Probation Community Payback Manager on 01869 328500 or email: tvy.personnel@thames-valley.probation.gsi.gov.uk

Application form and job description can be downloaded from www.jobsgopublic.com

Burnell content ahead of Exeter challenge

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

• London Welsh beat Pontypridd in their last pre-season game ahead of the new season (Picture by Martin John)

LONDON Welsh head coach Justin Burnell is content with his side's pre-season preparations after the Exiles beat Pontypridd 40-12 last Saturday.

Seb Stegmann (2), Nic Reynolds, Nathan Vella and Tom May all went over for the Dragons as Burnell's side ended pre-season on a high.

It completes a summer of recruitment and three pre-season friendlies against Henley Hawks, London Wasps and Pontypridd.

And Burnell is content ahead of the season opener at home to Exeter Chiefs on September 7.

"Exeter is what we've all been building for and we're all excited about it," said Burnell.

"It's progressed from Henley which was the most important thing. It was about getting us to move forward and we've achieved that."

Welsh were in control as early as the third minute against Pontypridd and led 26-0 at half-time, and Burnell was, on the whole, pleased with the performance.

He said: "When we got in the right areas, apart from 10 minutes in the second half when we didn't execute a lineout and a scrum, we finished them off.

"When we played at our tempo and speed, Ponty couldn't live with us.

"We scored some great tries in that first half and the tempo was good. Ponty didn't turn up at their own ground to roll over.

"Unfortunately then when the game got slowed down we struggled to maintain our momentum. But six tries is the pleasing thing."

Burnell also saved praise for new signing Lachlan McCaffrey and seasoned-Welsh players Stegmann, Nick Scott and Peter Browne.

"I thought some of the players really put their hand up and made a mark for Exeter," he said.

"Lachlan McCaffrey at seven did himself proud and Peter Browne.

"We know what Seb's got and I think he's getting better.

"Last year I thought we had the two outstanding wingers – Nick Scott was outstanding.

"They've got a massive statement to make in the Premiership."

City held by last-gasp Gloucester

JUSTIN Merritt said Oxford City did not deserve to beat Gloucester City as Charlie Griffin's 95th minute equaliser saw the visitors earn a 2-2 draw at Marsh Lane on Monday.

Tom Winters put City in front on 23 minutes before Griffin struck for the visitors with nine minutes remaining.

However, City looked to have won it in the 91st minute when Bidemi Afolabi slotted home, only for Griffin to level again.

City are unbeaten in the Vanarama Conference North this season and are seventh in the table with nine points.

Merritt said: "We have been consistently improving, but I felt we were below-par on Monday and didn't really deserve the victory.

"I don't want to worry about it too much, but we know where we need to improve."

City travel to 21st-placed Harrogate Town on Saturday and Merritt knows it will be a tough game up in North Yorkshire.

"They have had a tough start by their standards, but everybody is going to be hard to beat and it is a long journey," he said.

Jose Lapoujade (hamstring) and Liam Malone (ankle) are doubts, while Darren Mullings and Alejandro Adrian are both suspended.

Stegmann excited as new Premiership season looms

WINGER Seb Stegmann says London Welsh have come a long way since their crushing opening pre-season friendly win over Henley Hawks.

The Exiles completed their pre-season preparations last Saturday with a 40-12 win at Pontypridd, after being narrowly beaten 38-24 at Wasps the previous week.

Stegmann went over twice in last Saturday's win and is feeling positive ahead of the season opener against Exeter Chiefs on September 7.

"The standard's definitely gone up; we've seen it in training and in our games," said the 25-year-old.

"It's about confidence; we've got to keep the momentum going.

"The boys are excited; it's the Aviva Premiership.

"We strived so hard last season to get back there. We now just need to keep our heads for Exeter."

PREMIERSHIP RUGBY IN OXFORD - BE PART OF IT

United's season starts here, says Appleton

MICHAEL Appleton says Oxford United's season starts on Saturday after they suffered a heartbreaking 7-6 penalty shoot-out defeat to West Bromwich Albion in the Capital One Cup on Tuesday.

The Premier League club were full value for their lead when Johnny Mullins turned into his own net on 29 minutes.

But United bravely fought back in the second half and Danny Hylton equalised on 86 minutes to force an additional half an hour.

Winger Junior Brown had chances to win it for the U's in extra-time, before he was sent off for a second bookable offence.

And in a nail-biting shoot-out, Jason Davidson struck the winning penalty to send the Baggies through to the third round.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Appleton, whose side are currently bottom of Sky Bet League Two and without a point, is now calling on his players to kick-start their league campaign on Saturday at home to Dagenham & Redbridge.

"We will take a lot of comfort from this and a lot of pride from our performance and hopefully we can kick-start our season," he said.

"I said to them in the dressing room that we have got a 42-game season.

"Our season starts on Saturday - end of story."

United were so close to clinching it on penalties with Max Crocombe saving West Brom's first two spot-kicks.

However, Michael Collins and Tom Newey both missed and Davidson clinched it for the Baggies after Jake Wright's effort was saved by Boaz Myhill.

Appleton, who was a coach at the Baggies in 2011, was full of praise for his squad and added: "I can't fault any of the players - things happen for a reason.

"Maybe us going into the next round probably would have affected hopefully what is going to be a successful couple of months for us."

He continued: "The second half performance and all throughout extra time, I thought the lads were magnificent."

New signing Will Hoskins came off the bench in the second half and played a big part in Hylton's equaliser – heading the ball across goal for his strike partner to bundle home.

Appleton said about Hoskins: "His movement to the far post created the opportunity for us and sums everything up about him."

'Cheap goals' cost Wantage Town dearly

WANTAGE Town manager Gary Ackling said his side have to stop giving away cheap goals if they want to be competitive in Division One South & West.

The Alfredians recorded their first win at Southern League level last Saturday with a 4-2 win over Bishops Cleeve, but were beaten by the same scoreline by Swindon Supermarine on Monday.

Wantage are currently 19th in the table with four points from six games, but have conceded 15 goals already this season.

"If we're going to start moving up the table we've got to stop giving away cheap goals," said Ackling.

"We have conceded so many goals from players having free headers inside our box and you can't afford to do that."

New signing Sam Parish damaged ligaments in his knee against North Leigh last week and looks set to miss the rest of the season.

Ackling added: "I think it just sums up what has happened this season."

Wantage face Hellenic Premier Division side Kidlington in the preliminary round of the FA Cup tomorrow and Ackling is expecting a tough tie.

"We're under no illusion that Kidlington will be looking for a cup upset and we have got to make sure we're not involved in it.

"We're not going to progress that far in the FA Cup, but the financial rewards are one that you cannot ignore."

Dominant win for Nomads

OXFORD City Nomads thumped Abingdon United 5-1 in the Hellenic Premier Division on Monday to record back-to-back wins over the Bank Holiday weekend.

Chris Fontaine's men edged Highworth Town 3-2 last Saturday before Monday's emphatic victory.

Nomads are currently fifth in the table with nine points after four games.

Thame United also recorded back-to-back wins with victories over Reading Town and Ardley United.

Elsewhere, fourth-placed Kidlington beat Highmoor Ibis 3-1 last Saturday, only to lose by the same scoreline at home to Flackwell Heath on Monday.

Milton United, who are 11th after four games, lost to Holyport last Saturday but beat Newbury 2-1 on Monday.

Smith aims for strong showing at Silverstone

OXFORD'S MotoGP star Bradley Smith says he cannot wait to compete in front of his come crowd at the British Grand Prix at Silverstone this weekend.

The 23-year-old is currently 10th in the MotoGP standings and has enjoyed success at the Northamptonshire track before; finishing on the podium in the 125 and Moto2 classes.

Smith, who recently signed a new one-year deal with French team Yamaha Tech3, says racing at Silverstone is always a moment he cherishes.

"Silverstone for me is always a special occasion, as the circuit is not far from my hometown of Oxford, so I have a great deal of local support," he said.

"Having grown up visiting the circuit to watch the various events that Silverstone holds, and now being able to race a MotoGP bike on it is something that I will always cherish.

"The track is so unique, with fast and flowing turns and I personally find it so much fun.

"I hope to put in a strong result, and I can't wait to compete in front of my home crowd."

Repsol Honda rider Marc Marquez leads the championship by 77 points from teammate Dani Pedrosa.

Podium for Plato at Knockhill

JASON Plato had a solid if unspectacular weekend in the British Touring Car Championship at Knockhill, producing a best result of second.

The Oxford-born driver came fifth in the first race, before charging up to second place in race two.

Race three was less successful, as the reverse grid meant that Plato started ninth before finishing the day with a 10th place.

"We made some pretty big changes to the car between the races and it improved," said Plato.

"It was apparent that the soft tyre was better, so it would've been interesting to see how we'd have done against [race two winner] Mat Jackson on the same tyres.

"I'm more confident with the car now and we're not a million miles off."

Plato stayed third in the championship standings after Knockhill with 270 points, 39 behind series leader Colin Turkington.

The next round takes place at the Northamptonshire circuit of Rockingham on September 7.

More success for Pepperell

ABINGDON golfer Eddie Pepperell has recorded back-to-back top-five finishes on the European Tour with an impressive performance at the D+D REAL Czech Masters last weekend.

Pepperell carded rounds of 70, 72 and 71 before a final 67 saw him finish on eight-under-par and earn him a tie for fifth place.

It comes after Pepperell finished tied fourth in the Made in Denmark tournament last week.

The 23-year-old took home €38,700 from the tournament and is now 77th in the Race To Dubai rankings.

His world ranking has also increased from 307th two weeks ago to 232nd after his latest showing.

Hawks' season ready to begin

OXFORD Hawks Men's 1s begin their South League Premier Division 1 campaign at Robinsons Men's 1s on Saturday.

Hawks finished eighth in the league last season and will look to challenge higher up the standings this year.

Last Saturday, Hawks Ladies' 1s opened their Conference West campaign with a 2-2 draw at home to St Albans Ladies' 1s.

Oxford face the Scorpions again

OXFORD Rugby League return to action on Sunday, as they face South Wales Scorpions for the third time this season.

The Scorpions lost on the two previous occasions they played Oxford, and make the trip to the city for a 3pm start.

Oxford also won their last game on August 9, when they beat London Skolars 31-24 away from home.

More Sport inside: Football: 'Cheap goals' cost Wantage Town dearly

Joint boss Concannon pleased with 'solid start' to new campaign

MILLS HITS ANOTHER TREBLE AS DIDCOT SEE OFF FLEET

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon was pleased to end the bank holiday weekend with a 3-0 win over Fleet Town at Loop Meadow on Monday.

John Mills scored a hat-trick, taking his tally to nine goals in six games, to end the Railwaymen's two-match winless run in Division One South & West.

On Saturday, Diddy put in a spirited performance at Merthyr Town before losing 3-1, but Concannon was satisfied with the improvement from last Tuesday's 3-0 home defeat to Larkhall Athletic.

The Railwaymen are 11th in the table with nine points from six games.

And Concannon is content with Didcot's start to the season.

"We're not pulling up any trees but it's a solid start, we're sat in a nice position," he said.

"We are a very young side, people need to remember that, but we are learning all the time."

Concannon admitted that, after successive defeats, Monday's win over Fleet was important and he expected nothing less than three points.

"It was a game we expected to win," said Concannon.

"As managers you look at the fixtures and you look at games where you expect to pick up points whether it be home or away.

"We had two tough games against Fleet last year and we set up a team that was quite attack minded and we were more than worthy winners."

Mills grabbed all the headlines on Monday in what was a strong team performance.

And Concannon was quick to praise his top scorer.

"He is doing what he is good at, which is putting the ball in the back of the net," said Diddy's joint boss.

"Nine goals in six games is a very good return and if he gets chances he will take them.

"He got 22 league goals last year and he is nearly half way there already so long may that continue.

"If he gets a goal every single week I'll be absolutely delighted."

Mills' strike partner Ryan Brooks limped off after 16 minutes on Monday with a recurring hamstring injury and is likely to be out for three weeks.

Didcot are next in action tomorrow night when they travel to Beaconsfield SYCOB in the preliminary round of the FA Cup.
